

27 March 1967

Mr. George C. Dansey, Jr.
Acting Director
Bureau of Intelligence and Research
Department of State

Dear George:

Per our telephone conversation I am forwarding as requested in your letter to the Director of 15 March, a working draft which discusses the role of Communist countries in supplying military and economic aid to North Vietnam.

The available data do not permit a breakdown of aid deliveries by quarter nor do they allow estimates of the volume of rail shipments for specific periods. We have provided a breakdown of military aid by category, but cannot supply a similar breakdown for economic aid. If it would be useful to you we can, with further work, furnish a crude breakdown of economic aid by category through 1965 for the USSR and Poland alone.

Please let us know if I can be of any further assistance to you.

Sincerely,

25X1

/s/

William E. Farrell, Jr.
